

A Retired Member with a Medicare-Eligible Dependent

If the retired member is carrying family coverage and has a Medicare-eligible dependent, Medicare will become the primary payer for the dependent and PEEHIP will be the secondary payer at the time of retirement. The member must notify Medicare and PEEHIP. The dependent needs Medicare Part A and Part B effective on the date of the member's retirement. Most Medicare-eligible dependents should not enroll in the Medicare Part D program.